

Class One: Introduction and Computer Misuse

First

What Were You Thinking?

Odds that you will use this material in your professional career?

But maybe still a good idea

- Intensive Statutory course
- "Cyberlaw"
- Synthesis of substantive crim law and crim pro
- Newsorthy
 - FISA
 - Reading about Palin and Twitter
 - Movies

Administrivia

TAKE HOME EXAM

- 8 or 9 hours
- essays and short answers
- word limits
- "unlocked" examssoft
- everything but cut-and-paste

Other grade info

- Participation
 - Everybody on-call every day
 - Grade can move up to +5 or -5
 - Three passes
 - "Catches"
- Conferences
 - Friday, 11/20/09
 - DU
 - Cyber Civil Rights
 - Friday, 12/4/09
 - Our courtroom
 - Reforming Internet Privacy Law
- To satisfy requirement
 - Choose one and attend
 - Read
 - Email two questions to me > 24 hours before start of conference

Prior Knowledge Needed?

- None
- Interest is great
- Stop me if I (or your classmates) am going too fast.

Website

<http://paulohm.com/classes/cc09/>

add new stuff

Syllabus

Casebook

Volokh.com

Overview

The Law of the Horse?

Broad Overview

- Substantive
 - Computer Misuse
 - Traditional Crimes
- Procedural
 - Fourth Amendment
 - Statutory
- Cross-jurisdictional Disputes

Punishing Computer Misuse

What is it?

- CIA
 - Confidentiality
 - Sarah Palin email hack
 - Integrity
 - Distributed Denial of Service
 - malware
 - Availability
 - Twitter DDoS
 - zombie
 - bots
 - botnet

Why punish it?

Hypotheticals

- Bryan Smith
- Sarah Jones