

15: T 3/4      No Class (Attend April 9th EFF v. RIAA debate instead)

Reading TBA (on website, paulohm.com).

No regularly-scheduled class. All students must attend the Wednesday, April 9th debate between the RIAA and EFF instead. Reading will be assigned. (Details under Course Methodology at start of syllabus, including alternative assignments for those who cannot attend the 4/9 debate). Be prepared to ask questions of the debaters.

Chapter 8:    Infringement Actions

§ 8.03[B]      Copying

16: R 3/6      pp. 599-616 [18]; § 501(a).

§ 8.03[C]      Improper Appropriation

17: T 3/11      pp. 616-32; 639-46 [25] (Skip Laureysens v. Idea Group Inc. but read Notes following).

Chapter 9:    Secondary Liability

§ 9.01          Contributory Infringement and Vicarious Liability

§ 9.02[A]      Manufacturing and Distributing Copying Devices (Part One: Sony)

18: R 3/13      pp. 691-709 [19].

§ 9.02[C]      Manufacturing and Distributing Copying Devices (Part Two: Grokster)

19: T 3/18      pp. 721-47 [27].

§ 9.04          Technological Protection Measures and Circumvention Issues (DMCA)

20: R 3/20      pp. 749-771; handouts [23+]; skim § 1201.

Spring Break: No Class T 3/25 and R 3/27.

Chapter 10:   Fair Use and Affirmative Defenses

§ 10.01          Introduction

§ 10.02          The Fundamentals of Fair Use

21: T 4/1      pp. 773-99 [27]; § 107.

§ 10.03          Conceptual Issues in Fair Use

22: R 4/3      pp. 799-822 [24].